

Spring Break Youth Baseball Camp

Are you ready for your 2010 baseball season? Get ready during Spring Break at U.S. Cellular Community Park and have fun training with professionals who have been there! Our coaches are from all levels: former pros, former college coaches, the best high school coaches and pro scouts! Our staff is serious about making this a very rewarding experience for young athletes. We are dedicated to providing the best training with the best equipment available for all levels. We'll work hard, and play hard, too. Every morning we work on skills, and every afternoon we play games with the pros doing the pitching, so every game is full of action. Join us for one, two, or all four days! To register call 541-774-2400.

UnderArmour National Tryouts & Showcase

Powered by Baseball Factory

This prestigious tryout is for boys currently enrolled in grades 8—11, and a separate registration fee is charged for this 2-day evaluation in addition to the Spring Training Camp fee. The top 30 registrants will be selected to play in a showcase game on March 28, and the top performers may possibly receive an invitation to play on a National All-Star Team.

Founded in 1994, Baseball Factory is widely recognized as the nation's leader in player development and college placement, and has helped over 30,000 players reach their dream of competing at the college level. In addition, 215 Baseball Factory alums have gone on to play Major League Baseball. Baseball Factory provides baseball players nationwide with top-notch instruction, tournament competition, college planning and placement. Our proven approach to training and placement builds from our staff's extensive experience at all levels of professional and college baseball. Attending an Under Armour National Tryout, powered by Baseball Factory could be the launching pad for a baseball career and a college scholarship!
